

HOW TO USE YOUR SPARE TIME EFFECTIVELY - TEST*True/False Questions

Are the following statements true (T) or false (F)?

1. Spare time is time out of which we get no value.
2. Except the hermit, there is not a man on earth whose life is not involved to some degree with the life of others.
3. Your spare time gives you an opportunity to be with other people on a social basis.
4. Culture and art are universal pacifiers.
5. People who spend time with greatness will inescapable think of themselves with pride.
6. Spare time consists of those hours when we are not under compulsion to work at the job which provides our income.
7. Your spare time gives you the chance to expand your mind.
8. Your spare time is when you have the most formative conversations with yourself.
9. The highest kind of intelligence is to live organized lives.
10. Half your waking hours are spare time.
11. Most of us are in the position of living with both material and spiritual values as complementary elements of the good life.
12. We are helpless putty in the hands of a destiny we can do nothing but automatically accept.
13. Disillusionment with ourselves is the first step toward perspective and future wisdom.
14. "Moonlighting" is a healthy way of spending your spare time.
15. A man who spends his time with mediocrity himself sinks into mediocrity.
16. An enterprise is not dependent on the scope of the mind shaping it.
17. The average person brings into use only two-thirds of his/her brain.
18. Our word "idiot" comes directly from the Greek word for a man so immersed in public matters that he is shut off from private affairs.
19. Our leisure is the time when we can give expression to those sides of ourselves, which our work does not release.
20. Anthony Trollope fathered the intellectual revolution.	