

CHRISTIAN LIFE TRAINING

Use Spare Time Effectively		UST
NAME:	DATE:
STUDENT NUMBER:	MARK:

TEST MEMORANDUM — True/False Questions

Are the following statements true (T) or false (F)?

1. Spare time is time out of which we get no value.	F
2. Except the hermit, there is not a man on earth whose life is not involved to some degree with the life of others.	F
3. Your spare time gives you an opportunity to be with other people on a social basis.	T
4. Culture and art are universal pacifiers.	T
5. People who spend time with greatness will inescapable think of themselves with pride.	F
6. Spare time consists of those hours when we are not under compulsion to work at the job which provides our income.	T
7. Your spare time gives you the chance to expand your mind.	T
8. Your spare time is when you have the most formative conversations with yourself.	T
9. The highest kind of intelligence is to live organized lives.	T
10. Half your waking hours are spare time.	T
11. Most of us are in the position of living with both material and spiritual values as complementary elements of the good life.	T
12. We are helpless putty in the hands of a destiny we can do nothing but automatically accept.	F
13. Disillusionment with ourselves is the first step toward perspective and future wisdom.	T
14. "Moonlighting" is a healthy way of spending your spare time.	F
15. A man who spends his time with mediocrity himself sinks into mediocrity.	T
16. An enterprise is not dependent on the scope of the mind shaping it.	F
17. The average person brings into use only two-thirds of his/her brain.	F
18. Our word "idiot" comes directly from the Greek word for a man so immersed in public matters that he is shut off from private affairs.	F
19. Our leisure is the time when we can give expression to those sides of ourselves, which our work does not release.	T
20. Anthony Trollope fathered the intellectual revolution.	F