

Calvary Academics Learning Examination: Computer Basics

Instructions:

1. An answer file has been provided on your exam disk under the answer file folder. Please ensure that you fill in your correct student details in the space provided.
2. Please read the each question carefully before attempting to answer.
3. You will need to access the Internet for this examination.
4. God Bless you as you write this exam, and remember THINK BEFORE YOU INK!

Question		Mark
1.	The following items are either input or output devices: Printer and Touch screen. Describe briefly the function of each and indicate whether it is an input or output device.	4
2.	What is the difference between RAM and ROM? Show the difference by giving two characteristics of RAM and two characteristics of ROM.	4
3.	Explain what a computer virus is, and describe two measures you can take to protect your computer from a computer virus.	3
4.	Explain the terms hardware and software, and give an example of each.	4
5.	Give four situations where you may encounter computer systems in your daily life.	4
6.	Explain the difference between Scandisk and Defragmentation.	2
7.	List 3 licence types.	3
Total Mark:		24